SPEAKING SO TO SPEAK
Johannes Goebel

WED / OCT 15TH / 7:00 PM

This talk will be many words about words to create a view of what is beyond that, which is said.
Art, any kind of art, was only possible once we had language and were wondering about the meaning of life.

There is a lot of talking and thinking before art is made. There is a lot of speaking and writing after experiencing art.

A work of art can only be alive in the moment when we experience it.

When we talk or write and reflect and ponder on art, we are outside of the experience. Which is just fine—but different.
